

Let's not let them open loop holes in the do not call. If they succeed others will follow until the whole the whole do not all program is worthless. Already we get calls that say we are conducting a survey and the law does not apply to us. Then they want to test your water etc.